Week-End Offerings at
THE WOMEN'S SPECIALTY SHOPDRESSES THAT FIND MUCH FAVOR
AT AMAZING REDUCTIONS

A week ago we announced this sale of more than a hundred high class Summer Tailored Suits and Dresses at the most amazing reductions from regular prices. The response was immediate and enthusiastic. More than half the allotment has been sold; but more than fifty of the most charming styles remain—strikingly handsome creations from the studio of America's foremost creator of high-class apparel for women, including Dashing 1-Piece and 2-Piece Suits, Coat and Tube Dresses in Rough Silks, Soleils, White Serges and Imported Linens—All the seasonable colors.

Ordinarily in a sale like this, the woman beyond or below the normal size was the only one to profit. In this sale the greatest variety is in size 36, tho we have all sizes still.

IS $15 YOUR PRICE

For your Spring Suit? If so, you should see the tremendous variety of new colors and stripes in jaunty models we are showing at this popular price.

Pure wool fabrics, of course, in the much wanted smoke shades, soft grays, olive tones, distinctive browns and self-striped blues—the handsomest colors and patterns any man could wish for. Just the suits for average men who want to dress better than the average, for a moderate sum.

Come in and get acquainted with these beautiful suits. We want you to know by actual trying on and handling, that you can't match them in town, in style and for the quality, at $15.

UNDERWEAR—Now that you can't escape changing to lighter underwear, the extra fine qualities we are offering at the usual prices will surely attract you. All sizes in our standard half-bigan at 50c a garment, and all the best makes in every wanted weave.

WHERE TO GO
THIS SUMMER

Not a bit too early for you to begin casting about for a place to go this summer. Summer's not so very far away.

You'll get the pick of the cottages—the most desirable rooms at the hotel or boarding cottage—if you look about now.

Cape Cod's to be the vogue this summer. You really ought to know about it.

Then there's Buzzard's Bay; there's Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket; there's Narragansett; there's Newport; there's Watch Hill and there's the beautiful shore line of Connecticut.

No other summering places can offer you greater or more varied attractions.

City Engineer M. F. McKenna is rejoicing over the arrival of a little girl in his home.

Mrs. James S. Byron and daughter who have been visiting their cousins, Misses Fawley of this city for the past two weeks will leave for their home in Burlington, Iowa, on Saturday. Mrs. Byron is the wife of James C. Byron, consulting engineer of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad and a prominent member of the order of the Knights of Columbus. The ladies are enthusiastic over the hospitality so lavishly tendered during their stay in the Park City.

Dr. H. S. Schulz of State street, is contemplating a trip to his native city, Rochester, N. Y., in the near future.

Mrs. J. F. Brown, of 195 Main street, is entertaining her niece, Miss Egan, of Newtown, for a few days.

A great deal of favorable comment has been heard regarding the grand march at the ball of the local chapter of the Knights of Columbus on last Monday evening. The credit for the successful carrying out of the march is due to Prof. D. C. Quilty who is an enthusiastic member of the order. That Prof. Quilty is pleased with the success of the affair may be seen by the pleased smile which brightens up his countenance when the subject is mentioned to him.

The Oxford club is putting its cottage at Steeplechase in condition for the season. A large motor launch has been purchased for the use of the members in coming and going.

The local Council of Knights of Columbus are organizing a glee club in accordance with the precept of the last state convention. Members who can sing will meet in the Chapter Rooms, Sunday afternoon.

Capt. A. S. Hunt, of the Bridgeport Police Department, and Mrs. Hunt are boarding at the Buckingham. They have been occupying the furnished home of M. E. O'Brien.

There will be a prize whist and musical at the rooms of the Bridgeport Club, this evening. Prof. John Adam Hugo will play several selections. William Tomlinson, the well known tenor, will sing. Refreshments will be served.

C. A. Reade and W. T. Stockwell, of New Haven, took the degree work for a class of 21 at a meeting of All Baba sanctum, A. O. H. & P., last night. In Eagles' Hall. A dinner was served to 200 in Germania Hall. The candidates are the grand and vice grand hyasties of the new sanctum which has been organized in New Haven.

The rehearsal of the chorus of 40 voices which will represent Bridgeport in the coming Sangerfest in New York showed great progress made by the singers. Prof. Carl Helm, the well known choral leader, gave the chorus high praise. The rehearsal was witnessed, last night, by many visitors from New York.

The Men's League of the South Congregational Church, heard an address on Socialism, last evening, by Jasper McLevey, a prominent member of the Socialist party in this city. Mr. McLevey answered many questions that were asked him by the more curious among his auditors.

The Klondike Club which has planned for an enjoyable summer at its Black Rock cottage has elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, John Boyhood; vice president, William Hogan; financial secretary, P. D. Lyons; recording secretary, Daniel Walsh; treasurer, Daniel Walker; house committee, John F. Brady, John Boyhood, and Daniel Walsh.

A farewell reception was held in honor of Miss Margaret V. Keeley at the home of the Misses Mae and Lillian Langdon, No. 1058 East Main St., Wednesday evening. Miss Keeley is about to return to her former home in Patterson, N. J. Her friends presented her with a handsome brooch.

Do Children Need Alcohol?

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young.
